Torch Passing Meeting-Carina

- Went over email, websites, how to upload minutes, the PD calendar.

Information Equity Conference

- Oct 25-26 (Jeff Note from the Future: Now just the 25th, but chock full of great stuff!)

PD Page

- Carina: It's still going strong.
- Ashley: Will continue next year, it's pretty easy and she's already in the habit.
- Selwa is happy to help too.

FB Page is still fantastic.

Allan

- Outreach to prisons is something we've never done.
- Bookmobiles were originally part of DO but not much has been done of late.
- Intersectionality is key.

Carina

- Joy Robinson Awards and LWOC would be great (Jeff Note: Some critical words are missing from this, and I'm not 100% sure what I was trying to write.)

At this point in the meeting, Jeff proceeded to blather about his ideas for the upcoming year, and rambled about bananas and marmosets, and received much quality advice and input from the group. Alas, Jeff did not take proper minutes for this portion.

And thus concludes the year of Jeff's lackluster secretarial abilities.
