

List of Possible Caterers for NJLA Events

Created 8/14/17 - Joanne P. Roukens, NJLA Professional Development Committee

The list below does not imply that NJLA endorses these caterers. The list reflects known caterers that have been used successfully for a variety of library related events. What service and menus they provide, their costs and how far they travel is unique to each. It is up to the meeting organizers to research the details and evaluate their suitability for the event being hosted. Additions to this list are welcome. Please email Joanne P. Roukens at jroukens@librarylinknj.org.

Shop-Rite, King's, Wegman's and other supermarkets often have catering departments. You many have to pick-up the food rather than have it delivered. Check individual locations.	Locations throughout New Jersey
