1. Welcome & introductions [I don't have an attendee list for this month]
2. Review & approval of April minutes
3. January-February 2023 survey: Technical Services and Collection Development
  - a. Results -
<https://njlamembers.org/content/professional-development-surveys#2023-tscd-survey>
    - i. We can use the results for future conference or workshop planning
  - b. What programs can we come up with based on the responses? Top requests were:
    - i. Weeding
    - ii. Cataloging non print
    - iii. Original cataloging
    - iv. Local history – perhaps by next year Teresa and Katrina are doing more this year
    - v. CUS/Bibliographic control group connection - we need to foster the relationship with our more academically minded TS folks. Perhaps share information about our meetings with them more regularly, ask if we can attend theirs or get some info
4. Events
  - a. Evaluating book and media vendors
    1. 2nd part of a section meeting
      - a. Perhaps June or after the conference/in the fall
    2. Need to recruit presenters
      - a. Lisa agreed
      - b. Linda agreed
  - b. Long Island City – BookOps. NY Public Library sorting facility
    - i. Possibly Fall 2023
      1. Linda heard back from them and they were happy to do a 2-hour tour. They will work around our schedule. Current work and facility tour
      2. October 12th is a possibility. Linda will come up with an alternative day
5. Conference - May 31-June 2, 2023
  - a. At Conference, there possibly will be filming of short videos (60-90 seconds) to help promote the NJLA Sections.
    - i. More details to come
  - b. Section Table - Sign up for a shift here
    - i. From the Conference Committee: “We are still working on the final conference layout, but I wanted to give you a heads up that we are planning to move most of the NJLA tables into the exhibit hall this year. Member Services and the Fundraising tables will still be in the hallway next to the registration desk area, but we are planning to move the other sections inside the hall. We are finalizing the exhibitor booths and hall layout, and when that is finished, I will follow up with more information (probably after May 8).”

- c. Approved Sessions - Need to promote – advertisements finalized!
  - i. When Subject Headings Go Bad
    - 1. 📎 *Subject 2.jpg
  - ii. Reclassified w/ CUS BCMC
